Dear brothers and sisters,

A new chapter begins in the history of the St. Patrick, St. Anthony and Holy Cross parishes on 1st of February 2015, as they become Holy Trinity Parish. This is the fruit of many people's hard labour to fulfil the vision of Cardinal designate, our Archbishop John Dew in the Archdiocese of Wellington.

The Kingdom of God is at hand. It is a time to shift our boundaries and include all, practice Christian charity among our brothers and sisters and care for one another. Without the patient obedience, loving service with genuine honesty and sincerity, unity is not possible. It is a time of giving witness like the early Christians in Acts of the Apostles.

So dear friends, let us walk together in the love of the Lord and He will bless us.

Fr. Ephrem
